

Florida Family Services VPK

Have a VPK child transferring to your site? If a child is transferring to your site, please make sure you receive a certificate of reenrollment. Regardless of placement or reenrollment, we are asking providers to obtain a certificate of eligibility by the parent for payment purposes. Please do not enroll by confirmation number only. If you have questions regarding enrollment or termination for a child, please contact the VPK team at 400-4411 option 3 then option 1.

Screening and Intervention

Our newly created Behavior Boot Camp is excellent for programs with classrooms experiencing a large number of behavior challenges or for providers seeking more guidance to social emotional learning.

This program's mission is to improve safety, connection, problem solving, behavior, and social emotional skills, as well as significantly decrease or eliminate preschool expulsions.

*Please welcome our '20-21
Behavior Boot Camp Recruits!!!*

SAVE THE DATE

2022 Early Care and Education Conference

"Building the Foundation for Children's Success Through Intentional Interactions"

Join us for a day of learning on Saturday, January 29, 2022 at SPC Clearwater Campus. Registration opens in mid-December! For more information, contact Sharon Dennany at 727-400-4431 or email sdennany@elcpinellas.org. Download conference flyer HERE!

Quality Programs

Our Engage program is still accepting interested participants! Engage seeks to help address the qualified child care workforce shortage by providing financial relief to hiring providers that reimburses some of the costs of hiring new staff. For more information, please contact Linda Townsend at ltownsend@elcpinellas.org.
